

Winners of Licito Concorso '10 to get internships

ILJ wishes to announce that the top three winning entries of Licito Concorso '10 shall be offered internships at the following law firms:

- Bhasin & Co.
- Kaden Boriss Legal LLP
- Titus & Co.

Rules for internship

- Internships shall be offered for a period of four weeks during November-December 2010 at the New Delhi offices of the respective firms only.
- The entry which is awarded the first prize gets the first preference to choose between any of the law firms for internship followed by the second best entry and thereafter the third entry.
- In case of co-authorship in any of the three winning entries, both the authors shall be offered internships. However, both the authors shall be offered the same firm and cannot opt for different firms to pursue their internship.
- This internship is in addition to the prizes already mentioned on our poster and rules.
- After the winners have allotted their respective internships, they shall be bound by the internship rules of the respective firm where they would be interning.
